profile

I'm a passionate storyteller with over twenty five years experience in the media and entertainment industry; directing, writing and producing independent film, TV, commercials, corporate and documentary films.

Recent independent film includes Art Party, a theatrically-released feature made in collaboration with artist Bob and Roberta Smith and Trimming Pablo; a dramatic account of Picasso's visit to Sheffield for the 1950 Peace Congress. My arts campaign film, Save Old Flo, has recently been archived at Tate Britain.

Most recent TV drama work includes directing the UK 2nd unit on The Looming Tower for US production company 40 North. I've also produced and directed many factual entertainment series for the BBC and ITV, including Beat the Burglar, Beat the Bailiff and several series of Cash in the Attic.

As a film tutor specialising in acting for camera, I regularly guest as a director and lecturer at Bristol Old Vic Drama School.
